7.1.2. Gender equity & sensitization in curricular and co-curricular activities, facilities for women on campus

The institution is committed to promoting gender equity, gender sensitization, equal opportunities, and a safe and inclusive campus environment for all students and staff. Various curricular and co-curricular activities are conducted to create awareness about gender equality, women's rights, dignity, safety, and empowerment.

1. Gender Equity in Curricular Activities

Gender sensitization and equality are promoted through classroom teaching, seminars, workshops, guest lectures, and awareness programmes. Students are encouraged to understand gender-related issues, respect individual dignity, and eliminate gender-based discrimination. Topics such as women's health, menstrual hygiene, reproductive health, maternal health, prevention of sexual harassment, gender equality, and women's empowerment are addressed through academic activities. Equal opportunities are provided to students of all genders in academic participation, clinical training, practical demonstrations, leadership roles, and institutional responsibilities.

2. Gender Sensitization in Co-curricular Activities

The institution organizes various co-curricular and extracurricular activities to encourage gender awareness and social responsibility. These include:

- Observance of International Women's Day and other relevant awareness days.
- Health awareness programmes on women's health, menstrual hygiene, breast cancer, and reproductive health.
- Seminars, debates, poster presentations, and essay competitions on gender equality and women's empowerment.
- Cultural programmes, sports, and other student activities that encourage equal participation.
- Awareness sessions on women's safety, prevention of sexual harassment, and respectful behaviour.
- Community outreach programmes promoting women's health, education, and empowerment.

These activities help develop mutual respect, sensitivity, confidence, and leadership among students.

3. Facilities for Women on Campus

The institution strives to provide a safe, hygienic, and supportive environment for female students and employees. Facilities and measures include:

- Women's common room: A designated space for female students to rest and attend to their personal needs.
- Sanitary facilities: Separate, hygienic, and functional washrooms for women.
- Menstrual hygiene: Provision for appropriate menstrual hygiene management and safe disposal of sanitary waste.
- Safety and security: Campus security arrangements and appropriate monitoring of campus premises.CCTV surveillance cameras are installed at appropriate locations on campus to strengthen safety and security. Campus security measures are implemented to ensure a safe environment for students and staff. Medical assistance and counselling support are provided whenever required.
- Internal Committee: The Nirbhaya Committee supports initiatives related to women's safety, security, awareness, and prevention of harassment.An Internal Committee is constituted to address complaints of sexual harassment in accordance with applicable regulations, ensuring a suitable mechanism for reporting and resolution of grievances.
- Counselling and support: Guidance and support for students experiencing personal, academic, or gender-related concerns.
- Equal opportunities: Fair access to academic activities, sports, cultural events, clinical training, and leadership positions.
- Medical assistance: Access to healthcare support and referral services whenever required.
